

Remote Work Policy

Eligibility is determined by business need and manager approval. Employees must be available during core business hours. Maintain a dedicated workspace and reliable internet connectivity. Use company-approved devices and MFA. Protect company assets and confidential information. Remote work status may be revoked if performance expectations are not met.